

KINGBEAST

KINGBEAST is a groove-/ thrash metal band from Nuremberg (Germany) and was founded in 2012 by Heiko Jesenek (g) and Tobias Bezold (dr).

With Heiko Jesenek on guitar, KINGBEAST offer extreme heavy guitar riffs combined with a lot of groove and slower doom sounds. Tobias Bezold ensures with his fast and relentless explosive drums that the machine keeps running and no neck remains pain-free.

Since december 2014 Daniel Sira joined the band on bass guitar and provides plenty of power.

The first album "Demonic Beast Arises" was recorded in spring 2014 at the Deadlight Studios, self produced and self-distributed. Thrash paired with doom, death metal mixed with hardcore. Suddenly an ice cold black metal riff comes along which leads into feverish southern style sludge metal.

"Demonic Beast Arises" was honoured as "Demo Of The Month" in the German ROCK HARD MAGAZINE in November 2014.

After playing countless gigs with different guest appearances on the vocals, KINGBEAST decided to continue in the permanent three man line-up. Heiko took over the vocals. In this formation the band hit out their second album "Straps Of Wrath" on 10.05.2019 by Black Sunset / MDD Records.

As before, hard thrash metal riffs and hardcore arrangements dominate the all-crushing groove of KINGBEAST. The responses were very enthusiastic.

KINGBEAST toured again and unleashed their merciless energy on the stage.

In 2019 it became quiet about the band. The corona age began and beyond that everyone took care of their families.

In 2021 Thomas Herr from OMEGA SOUL joined KINGBEAST on the microphone. Since then, the four guys hit the stage again and work hard on the songs for the upcoming third album "The Awakening Of The Beast" which is recorded and produced in 2025 / 2026.
